About

Bobby has spent over three decades in the engineering design and construction of onshore and offshore structures for oil & gas, petrochemical, and industrial facilities — from conceptual design through detailed analysis, reassessment, and construction supervision, across steel, concrete, and geotechnical work.

Beyond core structural work, Bobby has repeatedly stepped into director, project engineer, and construction management roles — building execution plans, controlling budgets, sitting on bidding committees, and coordinating multi-discipline teams across joint ventures and multi-office locations for clients including Kellogg Brown & Root, McDermott, and Kvaerner.

— 03 — NEW OFFERING

AI-Powered Process Advisory

A newer service layered on top of 34 years of hands-on engineering leadership: helping structural and engineering firms find where AI actually removes friction, risk, and rework from their delivery process.

Process Audit

A structured review of design and delivery workflow to surface inefficiencies, bottlenecks, and manual work that AI can take off a team's plate.

QA/QC & Compliance Review

Assessing document control, review cycles, and compliance processes for risk and rework — and where automation reduces both.

AI Adoption Roadmap

A prioritized, practical plan for where and how to introduce AI tools into a firm's existing workflow, without disrupting delivery.
